

ELECTION 2015

Five HIV asks for the next UK Government

- 1 Retain the protections set out in the Human Rights Act
- 2 Introduce compulsory Sex and Relationships Education for all schools, which is inclusive of young people of all sexual orientations and gender identities and has appropriate sexual health and HIV content - in the first session of the new Parliament.*
- 3 Make HIV prevention a national public health priority, with effective funding, more varied testing options and access to the full range of prevention information and choices for all who need them.*
- 4 End HIV stigma in the NHS and social care through the training of all NHS and care staff.*
- 5 Ensure that people affected by HIV-related sickness or disability have the support they need by committing to the Disability Benefits Consortium's Five Things You And Your Party Can Do For Disabled People.

These are devolved areas so Westminster policy will affect England only*
